subject discussed was private and is am not at liberty to state what took place."

Among those present, besides Mr. Orr, were Woodbury Langdon, R. T. Wilson, Solon Humphreys, John H. Inman, Hugh N. Camp and Gustav H. Schwab, Mr. Orr intimated that the meeting was not as representative as was expected, and he left the reporter to infer that another caucus would be held later on, when a larger attendance could be secured, most of the prominent members of the Chamber being out of town at the present time.

In whose interest the members of the Chamber of Commerce are acting was not revealed. No names were mentioned.

The Republican County Committee, at its meeting on Friday night, adopted a resolution inviting all anti-Tammany factions to appoint committees to consult with the Republicans about a combination ticket. It is assumed that the gentlemen belonging to the Chamber of Commerce had advance knowledge of the resolution and acted early and promptly.

by Justice Welde. The Gerry Society was notified yester day that there was an infant being shamefully neglected by Annie Reeke, a midwife, who lives on the first floor of the flat-house 341 East One Hundred and Seventeenth street. Agent Agnew went there last night, but Mrs. Recke denied that she had a child on the premises. Mr. Agnew in-sisted on making a search, however, and finally found a female mite of humanity not more than a week old, almost suffocated, in a bundle of old rags in a bathtub. The infant was but a handful of skin and bones, and seemed at the point of death.

Agnew learned that Mrs. Reeke brought the child home last Friday, and had been in the habit of going out daily ever since, leaving the little one alone in the house. The feeble wailing of the child was what attracted the attention of the neighbors, and induced them to call the attention of the Society to the case

In the Essex Market Court to-day Justice Simms held an examination in the case of Charles Krumm, proprietor of the concert hall and saloon at 167 Chrystie street who was arrested day by Policemen Henry Foster and St and E 12 St. Forries. Fare o cents. Robert Henry, of the Eldridge street station, on a charge of violating the Excise law. Krumm was the principal witness against ex-Ward Detective Jeremiah 8. Levy in his recent trial on the charge of bribery, and in which the jury disagreed. When Krumm was arraigned yesterday he demanded an examination, an it was set down for this morning. He claimed that the arrest was made for spite, and that he was being annoyed by the police because he was a witness be-fore the Lexow Committee. He said that the police were trying to prevent Justice Simms replied that the evidence before him was sufficient to hold him for trial. He accordingly held him in $100 ball to await the action of the Grand Jury. Saloon-Keeper Hanson, of Rivington street and the Bowery, promptly went on his ball bond.

Krumm said he would prefer charges against the policemen before the Police Commissioners. He stated funrther that he would have a startling stry to tell when he took the stand before the Lexow Committee again.
